PROVISION FOR DEPENDANTS

There is no better way of providing for those dependent upon you than by effecting a Whole Life Assurance under The Distinctive System of this Institution, which combines Low Premiums with the right to share in the Surplus.

The Premiums may be paid throughout life or limited to a specified number, thus relieving the Assured in the later years when, owing to retirement, income may be reduced.

The Distinctive System has stood the test of over 100 years, during which the soundness of its principles and the equity of their application have been amply proved.

Assurances may be effected for amounts from £100 upwards.

ESTABLISHED 1860

THE choice of a memorial stone merits careful study in order that it may be worthy of the memory that inspires it. The question of cost need not be unduly considered, as a very moderate sum can secure a memorial of really fine design and craftsmanship. A personal call or enquiry would not entail the least obligation.

STATIONARY VEHICLES.

When it is necessary that a vehicle should stand on the street, it must be drawn close to the kerb, and must not be kept there longer than is reasonably necessary. Any person who causes or permits any motor vehicle or trailer to stand on a road so as to cause unnecessary obstruction is liable to a penalty.

A newspaper, or a packet of newspapers, posted unpaid is chargeable with double postage; if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

Every newspaper must be posted either without a cover or in a cover entirely open at both ends, so as to admit of easy removal for examination. If this rule be infringed, the newspaper is treated as a letter.

A newspaper which has any letter, or any communication of the nature of a letter, written in it or upon its cover, will be charged as an unpaid or insufficiently paid letter.

A parcel must not be posted in a letter box. It should be marked "Parcel Post" and presented at the counter of a Post Office.

If a packet bearing the words "Parcel Post," or otherwise marked for transmission as a parcel, is not posted in accordance with this regulation, it is treated as a letter if it is fully prepaid. If it is not fully prepaid at the letter post rate, it will be treated as a parcel, and will be charged on delivery with a fine of 1d., together with the deficient postage, if any, at the parcel post rate.

Parcels containing fish, game, meat, eggs, etc., or knives or other sharp instruments, can only be sent if so packed as to prevent all risk of injury to other parcels. Liquids or semi-liquids are not accepted unless in bottles or cans securely stoppered and suitably packed to prevent damage; nor powders, unless so packed that they cannot escape in transmission. Bottles or glass in any form can be accepted only when so packed as to be secure from breakage. If a parcel be tendered in a damaged or insecure condition it will be refused.

A parcel known to contain a prohibited article, or a parcel intended for delivery at an address other than that borne on the parcel itself, is liable to be refused.

Parcels addressed to a Post Office to be called for are kept two weeks, at the end of which period, if not called for, they will be returned to the sender, if his name and address are given on the parcel.

Parcels addressed to a ship are kept two months.

Undeliverable parcels which do not contain the address of the sender and are not applied for are liable to be disposed of after three months. Parcels containing perishable articles will be dealt with as may be requisite.

It is most desirable that the name and address of the sender should appear on the outside of every parcel.

INLAND CASH ON DELIVERY SERVICE.

Under this system the Postmaster-General undertakes on certain conditions to collect from the addressee the value of an article delivered either by parcel post or by registered letter post (but not by ordinary letter post), and to remit it to the sender by means of a special Order. By arrangement with the Railway Companies the service is applicable also, within certain limits, to consignments sent by rail.

The C.O.D. fees, which are additional to the ordinary postage, vary according to the Trade Charge (i.e. the amount to be collected), and are fixed on the following scale:—

|--------------------------------------|----------|--------|
| Trade Charge not exceeding 10/-..... | Fee | 4d. |
| Do. | £1..... | „ 6d. |
| Do. | £2..... | „ 8d. |

and 2d. for each additional £5 or fraction of £5 up to a maximum of £40.

Full particulars of the service, which does not apply to postal packets to or from Eire, may be obtained at any Money Order Office.

INLAND REGISTRATION AND COMPENSATION.

The Postmaster-General will, subject to the rules as to posting and packing, pay compensation up to a maximum limit of 400l. for the loss and damage of Inland Registered Postal Packets of all kinds upon payment of a fee in addition to the postage. This fee either consists of or includes in each case the ordinary registration fee of 3d.; and the scale of fees, and the respective limits of compensation are as follows:—

No charge is made for the re-direction of letters by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided in the latter case that the letters are re-posted not later than the day after delivery (Sundays and public holidays not being counted), and that they do not appear to have been opened.

Re-directed letters which are re-posted later than the day after delivery will be charged a fresh postage at the prepaid rate, and any which appear to have been opened will be charged as unpaid letters posted for the first time.

POSTE RESTANTE.

Postal packets of any kind to be called for are, as a rule, taken in at all Post Offices except Town Sub-Offices. The words "To be called for" or "Poste Restante" should appear in the address.

The Poste Restante is intended solely for the accommodation of strangers and travellers, and even they may not use the Poste Restante for more than three months.

PACKING.

Parcels for places abroad should be substantially packed with due regard to length of journey, conditions of transit, climate, etc., e.g., cardboard or ordinary brown paper is not, in general, sufficient packing for a parcel sent to a place abroad. For some countries special kinds of packing are required by the Post Offices of transit or of destination.

CUSTOMS CHARGES ABROAD.

Any parcel is liable to be opened for Customs examination abroad; and the contents are subject to Customs Duty according to the laws of the country of destination. The Postmaster General can give no information as to the Customs tariff of particular countries, but if the sender desires an indication of the amount of duty likely to be levied, he should apply to the Department of Overseas Trade, New Public Offices, St. George Street, Westminster, London, S.W.1, and 9-12 Basinghall Street, London, E.C.2.

CUSTOMS DECLARATION AND DESPATCH NOTE.

The sender of a parcel is required to make, for Customs purposes abroad—upon a special form or forms which can be obtained at a Post Office—an accurate declaration of the nature and value of the contents and other particulars. The form or forms should be filled up in ink. Undervaluation of the contents of a parcel or failure to describe them fully may result in seizure of the parcel, or in the imposition of a heavy fine. The net weight or quantity of the different kinds of articles contained in a parcel should be separately stated.

For postage rates and for particulars of the Services to individual countries, enquire at any Money Order Office. See also Table in current issue of the Post Office Guide.

The general regulations of the Air Mail are given hereunder:—

LETTER AIR MAILS.

1. *Any kind of letter packet may be sent by Air Mail, that is, letters, postcards, printed papers and commercial papers, and samples. 2. A special Blue Air Mail label must be affixed to the top left hand corner of every Air Mail packet. These labels may be obtained, free of charge, at any Head or Branch Post Office and at certain others.

If an Air Mail label is not available the packet should be clearly marked "By Air Mail"; but the absence of an Air Mail label may lead to delay.

A Telegram can be repeated back from Office to Office throughout the course of transmission if the Sender desires to adopt this precaution against error. The charge for repetition (which must be paid when the Telegram is handed in) is one-half the charge for transmission. If containing mercantile quotations or code words a Telegram ought always to be repeated. If the receiver of a Telegram doubts its accuracy he may have the whole or any part of it repeated without charge so long as the original telegram form is on hand at the office of origin.

The cost of a reply may be prepaid up to a maximum amount of 4s. (I.F.S., 4/6).

Copies of a Telegram, directed to more than one firm or person in the same free delivery will be delivered separately at an additional charge of fourpence per copy beyond the first. Each London Postal District is regarded for this purpose as forming a separate delivery.

Figures are counted at the rate of five figures to a word. Fractions are counted according to the number of figures employed, one figure being counted for the mark of division, thus— $\frac{1}{2}$ counts as one word, and $109\frac{1}{2}$ as two.

All Telegrams for delivery at addresses within three miles (one mile in Eire of the office of delivery, or within the town postal delivery in the case of a Head Post Office, are delivered free. The charge for delivery of a Telegram at any address beyond the limits of free delivery is at the rate of 6d. for each mile, reckoned from the boundary of the free delivery, any fraction of a mile being reckoned as a mile.

NIGHT TELEGRAPH LETTERS.

Night Telegraph Letters, which must be in plain language and must bear a full postal address, are accepted at any time by telephone or at any Telegraph Office which is open to obtain delivery by post the following morning in Great Britain or Northern Ireland, and to the following towns in Eire, viz., Cobh (or Queenstown), Cork, and Dublin. They may also be posted within the town area, but should be posted so as to reach the Head Office by midnight. The rate is 1s. The address must consist of two words, one of which is to be the town or place of delivery.

An abbreviated address, for use solely in connection with telegrams from abroad, is given free of charge to firms engaged in business in connection with which telegrams are received from overseas.
